

Verizon Wireless

Verizon Wireless retained Economic Project Solution, Inc., to plan and structure for all intent purposes their Corporate Strategic Retail Branch goals in the tri-state area. EPS represented Verizon Wireless by advising and spearheading 96 retail branch offices within a twelve week schedule.

Our philosophy is to evaluate risk upfront by determining critical path milestones for efficiency of entitlements. Our goal is to reduce the impact of opposition by obtaining the cooperation of the entire team well in advance in the planning stage. Our project management method has a proven track record for success in managing the outcome with the most economical cost control approach as a laser beam precision.

Our Fortune 500 clients turn to us for advice, management and representation regarding their facilities concerns.

We help companies acquire, inhabit, operate and improve their properties, which range from corporate headquarters to manufacturing plants, from small office suites to campuses of more than two million square feet of building space.

Project Management

Owner's Representative

Construction Consulting

Entitlement & Permitting

Facilities Management

OSHA/Fire & Safety

Property Management

Relocation Management

Technical Design Services

case study

a single source solution